A SENATOR'S FARM

CRAIG'S DAIRY DESCRIBED IN MISSOURI RURALIST.

IS RUN BY ELECTRICITY

Thirty Cows Milked by Machine—The Owner Says It Pays as Substitute For Hired Help.

"Milking Cows by Wire" is the title of a story about Senator Anderson Craig of Maryville. In explanation of the title the sub-title reads, "Electricity is the Handy Man at Senator Craig's Dairy Farm." The story is one by John F. Case, editor of the Missouri Ruralist, and appears in the current number of that magazine. It is:

Milking is an easy proposition at the Craig dairy farm, north of Maryville. Modern invention has put the milkmaid and the milkman out of business at this hustling Nodaway county dairy, and the "invisible giant" that does the work performs many another friendly office besides pailing the cows.

Senator Anderson Craig, who owns 420 acres of good northwest Missouri dirt and has a lot of money invested in Maryville property, had been conducting a dairy for two years before he began to investigate the milking machine proposition. He did not like the gasoline engine, so when he did come to the conclusion that it would pay to put in a machine he began to figure the cost of getting power from Maryville, two and a half miles. It took a pretty penny to run a private wire out from the power house, but when the "juice" arrived it certainly did the work.

The milking machine at Senator Craig's farm is a Sharples. A compressed air tank located in the milkhouse, several yards away, furnishes suction and two cows are milked at the same time. While the machine milks the cows fairly clean the operator strips the cows that have been milked while the machine is at work on the next two, thus losing no time. The teat cups are of metal and are adjustable. A rubber attachment inside the cup provides an excellent imitation of a calf sucking. As the power can also be adjusted so that all the suction necessary may be applied to a hard milking cow it can be seen that the machine is a success. The cows are said to prefer the machine to being milked by hand after they get used to the cups, and there is little trouble in getting them started.

About thirty cows, mostly grade Holsteins, are milked at the Craig dairy, and one man milks them in an hour and fifteen minutes. Senator Craig estimates that one man can do the work of three with the aid of the milking machine. He thinks the machine has paid him although in use but little over a year, and advises any dairyman who is milking more than twenty cows to buy the gasoline outfit if he is not close enough to a power house to get the current. Mr. Craig qualified that statement by saying that where there are several children in the family to help with the milking it might not pay, but where one must hire help it surely will. It will cost about $500 to install a gasoline outfit capable of doing the work handled at the Craig farm. The teat cups are kept in lime water when not in use and everything about the barn and milkhouse is scrupulously clean. The cream is separated and sold to local dealers in Maryville, where it is made into ice cream. The skimmilk is fed to the calves and pigs and is no small factor in making the dairy business a profitable one.

The electric current is put to a surprising number of uses at the Craig farm. It furnishes light and pumps water hot and cold to the house, runs the separator and heats the water for washing and scalding the milk vessels. While the family washing machine is at work the feed grinder out in the barn is grinding away and the cows are being milked. Senator Craig even has an elevator run by electricity that handles all the grain. In fact, everything that can be done by power instead of manual labor is done, and not only time but money is saved.

Senator Craig not only believes in having a modern dairy barn which is equipped with stanchions, concrete floors and litter carrier, but his big farm is farmed in a modern way. There are two silos on the farm and thirty acres were sown to alfalfa five years ago. Every year since four cuttings have been made from this alfalfa field, and Mr. Craig estimates that it has paid him $60 an acre, or $1,800 a year. All that has ever been done to the field is to cut it, and even with the shortage of feed last year there was a surplus of hay on the farm when pasture time came in 1914. Isn't that a boost for alfalfa? In winter the cows are fed corn and silage in addition to alfalfa hay and there is always a good flow of milk.

None of the manure at the Craig farm is wasted. It goes from the litter carrier direct to the manure spreader and is hauled to the fields. As a consequence soil fertility is kept up and although the land is high, probably worth around $200 an acre, this farm is paying good interest on the investment and getting more valuable every year.

"TROUBLE MAKES GROWTH."

Dr. Henry Suzzalo Says That We Learn From Difficulty and Its Solution.

"No one grows until he gets into trouble and finds a better solution to the problem." This statement was made by Dr. Henry Suzzalo of New York in this morning's lecture of the series he is giving to the Normal students.

"A child, or anyone, for that matter," he said, "will never discard an old technique or method unless another way is found which will get there quicker."

In continuance of his theme of the teacher as a supervisor of learning, he said that it was chiefly through oral means and through books that the teacher may be a great suggestor.

"The first thing to do," he asserted, "is to create a hungry mind. Activity is the safest way to learn, but it is also the longest way around, and the really efficient teacher will supplement the child's activity with helpful suggestions.

"One of the greatest things which the pupil can acquire is the ability to test out his own resources. Never do anything for the child which he can possibly do for himself. The teacher must be a good judge of situations and put choices before the students, which, with the proper suggestions, will help them on to the right solution of the problem."

IS AGAINST A FARM ADVISER.

H. C. Hiles of Burlington Junction Writes That He is Satisfied Without One.

With poetry and satire, H. C. Hiles of Burlington Junction writes the following letter to The Democrat-Forum stating that he is against the farm adviser movement:

Editor Democrat-Forum:

Breathes there the farmer with soul
so dead,
Who never to himself hath said
"I want a farm adviser?"
If such there be, go mark him well;
For surely he's a saphead.

We have had some advisers in our county lately, and they seem to be worse than the county variety. They advised the farmers to plow under their wheat that was infested with the Hessian fly, and it is estimated that they have lost about $10,000 by taking this advice.

Gentlemen advisers, you would better confine your labors to analyzing the soil, for not many farmers know or care whether their soil is sour or sweet, but any fool farmer knows that if he plows under his crop in the spring there will be "nothin' doin'" at harvest time.

Keep on talking about the organizations you have formed of the number of hogs you have cured of cholera, of the great number of letters you have written, of the old man in one of the southern counties whom you caused to raise ninety-nine bushels of corn on one acre, and then calculate from that how much the farmers are losing by not producing that number from every acre in the state. But do not tell the bankers and commercial men that with all the money they have put up as prizes for large acre yields not one bushel has been added to the general yield outside the test acres.

The boys, with the aid of their grandfathers, are willing to go down along the branches and put on a few extra licks for the prizes offered, but as for me, have the rest done as it always has been done.

Church Goers to Be Cool.

The First Christian church is installing electric fans purchased this week. Enough have been placed to make the temperature perfectly comfortable on the most torrid Sunday, so that the members will have no excuse to prefer the home veranda to the church pew.

Spent Day Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fast of Burlington Junction spent Wednesday visiting in Maryville.

Mrs. Katherine Hensen of Bedison visited friends in Maryville Wednesday.

SUNDAY CONCERTS

BAND WILL GIVE FIRST ONE AT 3:30 P. M. JULY 12.

TO BE AT NORMAL PARK

Free Will Offering to Be Taken to Cover Expenses—Thursday Night Programs Continue.

Prof. T. B. Maulding, director of the Maryville Concert Band, announced this morning that he would begin a series of free Sunday afternoon concerts at the Normal park next Sunday, July 12. The concerts will begin at 3:30 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

These concerts will be conducted on the same plan as those of last summer. No charges will be made for the concerts, but a free offering will be taken to defray the expenses of transportation and buying music. They will be continued throughout the hot weather as long as the people will give sufficient support to pay the small expenses connected with them.

This plan will not be interfered with in any way by the Missouri National Guard encampment at Nevada, which begins July 11, for the band is not going this year. The matter of its becoming the Fourth Regiment band has not been finally settled, and should it be this week it would be too late to take the band to Nevada this year.

The Sunday afternoon concerts are made possible by Prof. Maulding and the band members themselves, who, offer their time and services free if enough support is given to buy music and meet a few other incidental expenses. Prof. Maulding first introduced the plan last year, and throughout the summer concerts were given at the park every Sunday afternoon when the weather permitted. Those concerts were attended by many persons both from Maryville and the surrounding country and towns, the latter of whom drove in just to hear them. The band members think there will be a like demand for concerts again this summer, and so have offered to furnish them.

These concerts will not take the place of the weekly Thursday evening concerts downtown, but will be in addition to them. The programs will be published in the Saturday papers each week and will be sacred in character.

CHAUTAUQUA IN VERSE.

A Missouri Editor Bursts Into Poetic Ecstasies Over the Annual Summer Event.

From the Missouri Notes column of the Kansas City Times is taken the following poem in which Phil Campbell, the poetic editor of the Doniphan Prospect-News, sounds this clarion note on behalf of a national institution:

The summer heat was beating down
When up and down throughout the town
There passed a lad, fleet as a bird,
Who cried aloud this magic word:
"Chautauqua!"

He went into each bank and store,
He stopped at every dwelling's door,
And to all persons he would shout
And tell them something good about
"Chautauqua."

He said the thing that is worth while
To make one wise, to make one smile,
Is not this cheap barn-storming biz,
But without doubt most surely 'tis
"Chautauqua."

So let us all with one accord,
(For certainly we can afford)
Buy tickets to and daily go
And help out this uplifting show—
"Chautauqua."

Jeff Elliott of Graham spent Wednesday in Maryville on business.

BIG TENT DEMAND

CHAUTAUQUA CANVAS CITY TO BE LARGER THAN EVER.

PROGRAM READY SOON

Auditorium Tent to Be Smaller and Stronger—New Seats Will Have Backs.

With the opening of the Chautauqua only five weeks away, campers' tents are being engaged, and from the early inquiries and orders the tent colony this summer probably will exceed that of last year, when there were 100 canvas homes on the grounds. Each season the number of tenters has increased, and this year will include an extra number of out-of-town persons who will camp for the week.

One of the best and most comfortable ideas to be introduced this year will be the seats in the auditorium tent. They are to be canvas benches with backs and will take the place of the old style board seats. Neither will there be any reserved seats, except those taken for the entire week.

The "big top" is smaller than last year, but is a better tent. It measures 140 by 180 feet, is of khaki and is a heavier and stronger tent.

The completed and fully arranged program will be ready in a few days. Some of the best talent, not only in this country but abroad, and entertainers and lecturers of international reputation are on the list. The board of managers is looking forward to an exceptionally good attendance and a successful year in every way.

FORMER RESIDENT ENDS LIFE.

Mrs. Mary Finney, Daughter of Arch Graham, Shot Herself in Springfield Last Week.

G. W. Null of West Cooper street has received word of the death of his cousin, Mrs. Mary Finney, who committed suicide Friday, July 3, at her home in Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. Finney was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Graham of Nodaway county, and was born in Maryville, spending her early girlhood here. Mrs. Finney was the widow of a brother of George W. Finney, who was a resident of this city until a short time ago. The following account of Mrs. Finney's death is taken from the Springfield Republican of July 4.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Finney, who committed suicide about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon. Rev. F. L. Moffatt, pastor of the First Christian church, will be in charge. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Finney, aged 46, was known by her family and friends to have been in a very nervous condition for several weeks, and to a sudden state of acute melancholia is ascribed her action. She killed herself by going into the back yard, resting the butt of a double barrelled shotgun on the ground and leaning over against the muzzle so that it touched her breast near her heart, firing the weapon by pushing the trigger with a twig.

$20,000 ROAD BONDS ASKED.

Residents of Lincoln Township May Petition County Court to Set Election Date.

Some of the residents of Lincoln township are agitating a road bond issue. The proposition seems to be meeting with favor over the township, and it is thought that an issue of $15,000 or $20,000 would carry without trouble.

It is probable that within the next few days petitions will be circulated asking the county court to set aside an election day for the purpose of voting on the proposed bonds.

FROM PRACTICE RUN TO FIRE.

Jensen Home Endangered When Students Go to School and Leave Oil Stove Burning.

While the fire department was making a practice run in the southeast part of Maryville about 8 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the home of Charles Jensen, a member of the department, on West Fifth street. When the alarm bell on the fire station was sounded the wagon made the run to the station and from there to the fire, which, however, had been put out before the company's arrival.

The fire was caused from an oil stove which two roomers, students who do light housekeeping, had left burning in their upstairs kitchen when they went to school this morning. Mrs. Jensen saw the fire from the back yard, ran into the house and put it out. Little damage was done.

SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR FESTIVAL.

Band Concert Especially Fine to Help Rest Room Fund.

A special program will be given Thursday night at the band concert, by the band, to help the women of the Federation in giving the ice cream festival for the benefit of the new rest room. Several extra numbers will be added and some of the old favorites repeated.

The proceeds of the affair will go toward paying the salary of the matron for the women's public rest room, which is now nearly completed. The Federation of Women's Clubs has assumed the responsibility of hiring a matron and is giving an ice cream social on Main street Thursday night from 7 until 10 o'clock to start the fund.

WILL BE A COUNTY FAIR.

A. O. Mason Says Races Will Be Just a Part of Each Day's Events.

A. O. Mason said today that he was preparing for a county fair this fall and not merely for a race meet. There will be stock exhibits and premiums, exhibits of all kinds of farm products, grains, vegetables, butters, canned goods and prizes for every class.

The active work of advertising the fair will begin soon. Committees will be appointed in each township to urge the farmers to enter exhibits, and James M. Stevens of Creston, Ia., is expected soon to begin work on the track department.

Nearly 100 horses have been entered from Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky and Wisconsin. The race track is about finished, and Mr. Mason invites automobilists to drive on it and help pack it down and get it in shape.

The grand stand will be finished in a few days, and work has started on the floral hall, the main exhibit building.

H. C. L. IS NO BAR TO MARRIAGE.

Nodaway's Lovers Wed So Young That They Have to Have Parental Consent.

The struggling young men of Nodaway county who are battling with this modern age's high cost of living for an existence are not, as the general hue and cry of the times would have us believe, putting off marriage until late in life. At least those who have been married this month are not.

The men and women who have applied to Recorder Wray for licenses since July 1 are young, so young that most of them have had to have the consent of their parents before they could obtain a license. The average age of the men is twenty and one-half years, while the women are nineteen. The oldest man is twenty-five and the youngest is eighteen. The extremes for the women are twenty-two and seventeen years.

Seven licenses have been issued. In four of them one or the other of the parties has had to have the consent of their parents, and in a fifth license both parties were under age. Of the six persons who obtained parental consent to be married, three are men and three are women.

DIRECTORS MEET

STANDARD POLAND-CHINA RECORD ASS'N IN SESSION.

CITY STILL ITS HOME

Board Decides to Give Premiums at Big Fairs—Disposes of Routine Business.

The first midyear meeting of the board of directors of the Standard Poland-China Record association was held here today. When seen by a representative of The Democrat-Forum the directors strongly denied that any attempt would be made in the meeting to take the home of the association away from Maryville. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and make arrangements for some of the state fairs this fall and to dispose of some matters of routine business.

The board decided to offer premiums at the Interstate fair, to be held in St. Joseph, the American Royal live stock fair in Kansas City and the Oklahoma state fair in Muskogee.

C. H. Walker of Kansas City met with the board today to discuss with it the foundation and publication of a new magazine devoted to the Poland-China business. The magazine is to be a bi-weekly publication, will be published in Kansas City and will be known as the Poland-China Journal.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors here last January a new set of by-laws was adopted, which provided for two meetings a year instead of one. Today's meeting was the first semi-annual meeting. It was held in the office of the association, on Third street. Olie McKelvey of Fairfield, Neb., was the only member of the board who did not attend the meeting. Those present were: President J. H. Harvey of Maryville, Vice President R. F. Gilmore of Hopkins, H. L. Faulkner, Jamesport, Mo.; T. J. Meisner, Sabetha, Kan.; P. C. Miller, Conway, Ia.; W. H. Charters, Butler, Mo., and George F. Woodworth, Maryville, secretary.

Those who do not go are liable to trial and dishonorable discharge, Lieutenant DeMotte said this morning, but if any members feel they cannot go he will be at the armory Friday night to hear their reasons and pass on them.

The company will leave Maryville Saturday afternoon, July 11, on the Burlington. About fifty men are expected to go. They will return Sunday, July 19.

Buggy in Which He Was Driving With Miss Hunt Struck by Car—No One Hurt.

Probate Judge W. H. Conn and his deputy, Miss Mabel Hunt, met with an automobile accident when returning to the court house from dinner today, but neither was hurt.

Judge Conn and Miss Hunt were driving west on Fifth street, near the high school building in his buggy when the accident occurred. A car was coming toward them and another was approaching them from the rear. In trying to pass both the buggy and the other car, Mrs. E. F. Welborn, driving Preston Seafers' car, struck the Conn buggy from the rear. It was thrown against the curbing and both back wheels were broken.

Mrs. Welborn was driving slowly at the time of the accident.

Washington, July 8.—Comptroller Williams, before a senate committee investigating charges of misuse of official letterheads for promotion of a North Carolina gold mining project reiterated his previous statement that he had no interest whatsoever in the property and denied that he ever arranged a conference between the promoter and the prospective buyer.

Senators Pomerene and Swanson testified they bought stock in the mine. W. G. Newman offered to produce letters, but Senator Thompson, chairman of the committee, declined to receive them. Senator Clapp objected and said the letters should be produced.

Athletics Defeat Giants 7-3 Monday.

The Athletics put themselves nearer the top in the Normal school base ball league by defeating the Giants 7-3 yesterday afternoon.

The game was easily the Athletics' from the start. The Giants were shut out until the last inning, when loose playing on the part of the Athletics let them make three scores.

The Grizzlies, who have been leading, are now but one game in advance of the Athletics, and the game Friday between these teams may tie them.

Second Brood of the Army Worm.

(By Leonard Haseman.)

It is nearly time for the second brood of the army worm to appear. Millions of the first brood escaped destruction, and when full fed, entered the ground and changed to the chrysalis stage, from which the moths are now emerging in countless numbers.

The army worm moth is light brown in color and nearly an inch long. When it rests, it folds its wings so as to extend lengthwise of the body. During the day these moths collect under leaves, in wheat shocks, and other protected places away from the bright sunlight. At sundown they begin to fly about. After dark they are attracted to lights in great numbers. These moths will lay their eggs on grasses and other green crops, and as soon as the eggs hatch the young caterpillars of the second swarm of army worms will begin to feed on and destroy the crops.

The Missouri college of agriculture does not regard the situation as especially serious, because while there are immense swarms of moths now laying their eggs, there are also equally great numbers of insects which are parasitic on caterpillars of the army worm type waiting to destroy the young worms when they hatch. These insects in former years have successfully controlled the second and third broods of army worms by killing them off in enormous numbers. Usually, however, the second brood has not been as large as it promises to be this year, judging by the number of moths. So we may expect trouble in certain restricted regions. The weather plays an important part in army worm control. Cool weather is favorable for the army worm and hot weather is unfavorable.

It is desirable that farmers in the regions where the army worm was so destructive early in the season should be on the look out, and if they appear in large numbers in any particular field take immediate steps to keep them from spreading.

See Frank Barmann for low down prices on wagons, wagon boxes and buggies.

RAMSOM NOT PAID, ZAPATA SLAYS MAN

Juan Velaso Executed When Delivery is Delayed.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 8.—Delay in the payment of a ransom of 1,000,000 pesos has resulted in the execution by Zapatistas of Juan Velasco, the manager of a cotton manufacturing concern, who was taen prisoner near Atlixco, state of Puebla, according to Velasco's brother, who left Vera Cruz to obtain his release, but returned from his unsuccessful mission.

The prisoner was compelled to send to the officials of the company in Puebla the demand for the ransom and Velasco's brother started out immediately to aid him. He proceeded as far as Apizaco, near Puebla, where he was going to get in touch with the Zapatistas, when he was informed that the captive already had been killed.

FUNSTON REPORTS FIGTHING

Washington Interested In Reports of Mutiny of Huerta Troops.

Washington, July 8.—The mutiny which has broken out among Mexican federal soldiers near American outposts at Vera Cruz was a subject of keen interest in American official quarters and several messages on the subject were received from General Funston, who reported that fighting between the federals and mutineers was in progress.

Funston reported the Mexican commander had informed him of the uprising and of the threat of the mutineers to attack the American lines.

According to a personal message from Villa, received in Washington from Torreon, differences between himself and Carranza are being satisfactorily adjusted.

Four Federal Officers Executed.

ILLINOIS MINERS IDLE

Forty Thousand Are Out of Work, Says Secretary McDonald.

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—A desperate condition in the coal mining industry in Illinois was depicted by Duncan McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois mine workers, addressing the state efficiency and economy committee at its meeting at the state house, considering reorganization of the labor and mining agencies of Illinois. Forty thousand of the 90,000 members of his order in the state are out of work, said Mr. McDonald, because of the overdoing of the coal mining industry in Illinois.

"Many of these miners are on the verge of starvation," said the speaker, "as we have not enough money in our relief fund to supply them all. Eighteen mining companies failed last year and probably more than that number will fail this year. Too many mines are being opened. There should be a law here like that in Germany, restricting the opening of new mines."

Orient Contractors Also Bankrupt.

Kansas City, July 7.—The three construction companies which built the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway and which went into bankruptcy with the road, were auctioned off on the steps of the federal building here for 5 cents on the dollar. Benjamin S. Harmon of New York City, representing the stockholders' committee, bought all three companies for an aggregate of $145,000.

No Public Funeral For Anarchists.

New York, July 8.—The public funeral and demonstration planned for Saturday by anarchists and others in honor of three men and the woman killed by the bomb explosion of July 4 has been called off. It is possible the victims will be cremated and the public funeral held over the ashes.

AFTER MISSOURI PACIFIC

House to Inquire Into Its Default on Subsidy Bonds.

Washington, July 8.—The house passed the resolution of Congressman Barton of Nebraska requiring the secretary of the treasury to send to the house important information now in the files of the treasury department concerning government bonds of the Missouri Pacific railroad covering the 100 miles of railroad extending from Atchison to Waterville, Kan.

The said bonds were issued by the government when that line was owned by the central branch of the Union Pacific before taken over by the Missouri Pacific.

In explaining this resolution of inquiry Mr. Barton said that the Missouri Pacific has issued bonds to the government in the sum of $1,600,000, that the accrued interest in all makes that amount now nearly $4,000,000, that the road never has paid any part of the principal or interest, being the only road in the United States that has not made good on its subsidy bond.

A SENATOR'S FARM

CRAIG'S DAIRY DESCRIBED IN MISSOURI RURALIST.

IS RUN BY ELECTRICITY

Thirty Cows Milked by Machine—The Owner Says It Pays as Substitute For Hired Help.

"Milking Cows by Wire" is the title of a story about Senator Anderson Craig of Maryville. In explanation of the title the sub-title reads, "Electricity is the Handy Man at Senator Craig's Dairy Farm." The story is one by John F. Case, editor of the Missouri Ruralist, and appears in the current number of that magazine. It is:

Milking is an easy proposition at the Craig dairy farm, north of Maryville. Modern invention has put the milkmaid and the milkman out of business at this hustling Nodaway county dairy, and the "invisible giant" that does the work performs many another friendly office besides pailing the cows.

Senator Anderson Craig, who owns 420 acres of good northwest Missouri dirt and has a lot of money invested in Maryville property, had been conducting a dairy for two years before he began to investigate the milking machine proposition. He did not like the gasoline engine, so when he did come to the conclusion that it would pay to put in a machine he began to figure the cost of getting power from Maryville, two and a half miles. It took a pretty penny to run a private wire out from the power house, but when the "juice" arrived it certainly did the work.

The milking machine at Senator Craig's farm is a Sharples. A compressed air tank located in the milkhouse, several yards away, furnishes suction and two cows are milked at the same time. While the machine milks the cows fairly clean the operator strips the cows that have been milked while the machine is at work on the next two, thus losing no time. The teat cups are of metal and are adjustable. A rubber attachment inside the cup provides an excellent imitation of a calf sucking. As the power can also be adjusted so that all the suction necessary may be applied to a hard milking cow it can be seen that the machine is a success. The cows are said to prefer the machine to being milked by hand after they get used to the cups, and there is little trouble in getting them started.

About thirty cows, mostly grade Holsteins, are milked at the Craig dairy, and one man milks them in an hour and fifteen minutes. Senator Craig estimates that one man can do the work of three with the aid of the milking machine. He thinks the machine has paid him although in use but little over a year, and advises any dairyman who is milking more than twenty cows to buy the gasoline outfit if he is not close enough to a power house to get the current. Mr. Craig qualified that statement by saying that where there are several children in the family to help with the milking it might not pay, but where one must hire help it surely will. It will cost about $500 to install a gasoline outfit capable of doing the work handled at the Craig farm. The teat cups are kept in lime water when not in use and everything about the barn and milkhouse is scrupulously clean. The cream is separated and sold to local dealers in Maryville, where it is made into ice cream. The skimmilk is fed to the calves and pigs and is no small factor in making the dairy business a profitable one.

The electric current is put to a surprising number of uses at the Craig farm. It furnishes light and pumps water hot and cold to the house, runs the separator and heats the water for washing and scalding the milk vessels. While the family washing machine is at work the feed grinder out in the barn is grinding away and the cows are being milked. Senator Craig even has an elevator run by electricity that handles all the grain. In fact, everything that can be done by power instead of manual labor is done, and not only time but money is saved.

Senator Craig not only believes in having a modern dairy barn which is equipped with stanchions, concrete floors and litter carrier, but his big farm is farmed in a modern way. There are two silos on the farm and thirty acres were sown to alfalfa five years ago. Every year since four cuttings have been made from this alfalfa field, and Mr. Craig estimates that it has paid him $60 an acre, or $1,800 a year. All that has ever been done to the field is to cut it, and even with the shortage of feed last year there was a surplus of hay on the farm when pasture time came in 1914. Isn't that a boost for alfalfa? In winter the cows are fed corn and silage in addition to alfalfa hay and there is always a good flow of milk.

None of the manure at the Craig farm is wasted. It goes from the litter carrier direct to the manure spreader and is hauled to the fields. As a consequence soil fertility is kept up and although the land is high, probably worth around $200 an acre, this farm is paying good interest on the investment and getting more valuable every year.

"TROUBLE MAKES GROWTH."

Dr. Henry Suzzalo Says That We Learn From Difficulty and Its Solution.

"No one grows until he gets into trouble and finds a better solution to the problem." This statement was made by Dr. Henry Suzzalo of New York in this morning's lecture of the series he is giving to the Normal students.

"A child, or anyone, for that matter," he said, "will never discard an old technique or method unless another way is found which will get there quicker."

In continuance of his theme of the teacher as a supervisor of learning, he said that it was chiefly through oral means and through books that the teacher may be a great suggestor.

"The first thing to do," he asserted, "is to create a hungry mind. Activity is the safest way to learn, but it is also the longest way around, and the really efficient teacher will supplement the child's activity with helpful suggestions.

"One of the greatest things which the pupil can acquire is the ability to test out his own resources. Never do anything for the child which he can possibly do for himself. The teacher must be a good judge of situations and put choices before the students, which, with the proper suggestions, will help them on to the right solution of the problem."

IS AGAINST A FARM ADVISER.

H. C. Hiles of Burlington Junction Writes That He is Satisfied Without One.

With poetry and satire, H. C. Hiles of Burlington Junction writes the following letter to The Democrat-Forum stating that he is against the farm adviser movement:

Editor Democrat-Forum:

Breathes there the farmer with soul
so dead,
Who never to himself hath said
"I want a farm adviser?"
If such there be, go mark him well;
For surely he's a saphead.

We have had some advisers in our county lately, and they seem to be worse than the county variety. They advised the farmers to plow under their wheat that was infested with the Hessian fly, and it is estimated that they have lost about $10,000 by taking this advice.

Gentlemen advisers, you would better confine your labors to analyzing the soil, for not many farmers know or care whether their soil is sour or sweet, but any fool farmer knows that if he plows under his crop in the spring there will be "nothin' doin'" at harvest time.

Keep on talking about the organizations you have formed of the number of hogs you have cured of cholera, of the great number of letters you have written, of the old man in one of the southern counties whom you caused to raise ninety-nine bushels of corn on one acre, and then calculate from that how much the farmers are losing by not producing that number from every acre in the state. But do not tell the bankers and commercial men that with all the money they have put up as prizes for large acre yields not one bushel has been added to the general yield outside the test acres.

The boys, with the aid of their grandfathers, are willing to go down along the branches and put on a few extra licks for the prizes offered, but as for me, have the rest done as it always has been done.

Church Goers to Be Cool.

The First Christian church is installing electric fans purchased this week. Enough have been placed to make the temperature perfectly comfortable on the most torrid Sunday, so that the members will have no excuse to prefer the home veranda to the church pew.

SUNDAY CONCERTS

BAND WILL GIVE FIRST ONE AT 3:30 P. M. JULY 12.

TO BE AT NORMAL PARK

Free Will Offering to Be Taken to Cover Expenses—Thursday Night Programs Continue.

Prof. T. B. Maulding, director of the Maryville Concert Band, announced this morning that he would begin a series of free Sunday afternoon concerts at the Normal park next Sunday, July 12. The concerts will begin at 3:30 o'clock every Sunday afternoon.

These concerts will be conducted on the same plan as those of last summer. No charges will be made for the concerts, but a free offering will be taken to defray the expenses of transportation and buying music. They will be continued throughout the hot weather as long as the people will give sufficient support to pay the small expenses connected with them.

This plan will not be interfered with in any way by the Missouri National Guard encampment at Nevada, which begins July 11, for the band is not going this year. The matter of its becoming the Fourth Regiment band has not been finally settled, and should it be this week it would be too late to take the band to Nevada this year.

The Sunday afternoon concerts are made possible by Prof. Maulding and the band members themselves, who, offer their time and services free if enough support is given to buy music and meet a few other incidental expenses. Prof. Maulding first introduced the plan last year, and throughout the summer concerts were given at the park every Sunday afternoon when the weather permitted. Those concerts were attended by many persons both from Maryville and the surrounding country and towns, the latter of whom drove in just to hear them. The band members think there will be a like demand for concerts again this summer, and so have offered to furnish them.

These concerts will not take the place of the weekly Thursday evening concerts downtown, but will be in addition to them. The programs will be published in the Saturday papers each week and will be sacred in character.

CHAUTAUQUA IN VERSE.

A Missouri Editor Bursts Into Poetic Ecstasies Over the Annual Summer Event.

From the Missouri Notes column of the Kansas City Times is taken the following poem in which Phil Campbell, the poetic editor of the Doniphan Prospect-News, sounds this clarion note on behalf of a national institution:

The summer heat was beating down
When up and down throughout the
town
There passed a lad, fleet as a bird,
Who cried aloud this magic word:
"Chautauqua!"

He went into each bank and store,
He stopped at every dwelling's door,
And to all persons he would shout
And tell them something good about
"Chautauqua."

He said the thing that is worth while
To make one wise, to make one smile,
Is not this cheap barn-storming biz,
But without doubt most surely 'tis
"Chautauqua."

So let us all with one accord,
(For certainly we can afford)
Buy tickets to and daily go
And help out this uplifting show—
"Chautauqua."

Jeff Elliott of Graham spent Wednesday in Maryville on business.

BIG TENT DEMAND

CHAUTAUQUA CANVAS CITY TO BE LARGER THAN EVER.

PROGRAM READY SOON

Auditorium Tent to Be Smaller and Stronger—New Seats Will Have Backs.

With the opening of the Chautauqua only five weeks away, campers' tents are being engaged, and from the early inquiries and orders the tent colony this summer probably will exceed that of last year, when there were 100 canvas homes on the grounds. Each season the number of tenters has increased, and this year will include an extra number of out-of-town persons who will camp for the week.

One of the best and most comfortable ideas to be introduced this year will be the seats in the auditorium tent. They are to be canvas benches with backs and will take the place of the old style board seats. Neither will there be any reserved seats, except those taken for the entire week.

The "big top" is smaller than last year, but is a better tent. It measures 140 by 180 feet, is of khaki and is a heavier and stronger tent.

The completed and fully arranged program will be ready in a few days. Some of the best talent, not only in this country but abroad, and entertainers and lecturers of international reputation are on the list. The board of managers is looking forward to an exceptionally good attendance and a successful year in every way.

FORMER RESIDENT ENDS LIFE.

Mrs. Mary Finney, Daughter of Arch Graham, Shot Herself in Springfield Last Week.

G. W. Null of West Cooper street has received word of the death of his cousin, Mrs. Mary Finney, who committed suicide Friday, July 3, at her home in Springfield, Mo.

Mrs. Finney was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Graham of Nodaway county, and was born in Maryville, spending her early girlhood here. Mrs. Finney was the widow of a brother of George W. Finney, who was a resident of this city until a short time ago. The following account of Mrs. Finney's death is taken from the Springfield Republican of July 4.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Finney, who committed suicide about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon. Rev. F. L. Moffatt, pastor of the First Christian church, will be in charge. Burial will be made in Maple Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Finney, aged 46, was known by her family and friends to have been in a very nervous condition for several weeks, and to a sudden state of acute melancholia is ascribed her action. She killed herself by going into the back yard, resting the butt of a double barrelled shotgun on the ground and leaning over against the muzzle so that it touched her breast near her heart, firing the weapon by pushing the trigger with a twig.

$20,000 ROAD BONDS ASKED.

Residents of Lincoln Township May Petition County Court to Set Election Date.

Some of the residents of Lincoln township are agitating a road bond issue. The proposition seems to be meeting with favor over the township, and it is thought that an issue of $15,000 or $20,000 would carry without trouble.

It is probable that within the next few days petitions will be circulated asking the county court to set aside an election day for the purpose of voting on the proposed bonds.

FROM PRACTICE RUN TO FIRE.

Jensen Home Endangered When Students Go to School and Leave Oil Stove Burning.

While the fire department was making a practice run in the southeast part of Maryville about 8 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the home of Charles Jensen, a member of the department, on West Fifth street. When the alarm bell on the fire station was sounded the wagon made the run to the station and from there to the fire, which, however, had been put out before the company's arrival.

The fire was caused from an oil stove which two roomers, students who do light housekeeping, had left burning in their upstairs kitchen when they went to school this morning. Mrs. Jensen saw the fire from the back yard, ran into the house and put it out. Little damage was done.

SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR FESTIVAL.

Band Concert Especially Fine to Help Rest Room Fund.

A special program will be given Thursday night at the band concert, by the band, to help the women of the Federation in giving the ice cream festival for the benefit of the new rest room. Several extra numbers will be added and some of the old favorites repeated.

The proceeds of the affair will go toward paying the salary of the matron for the women's public rest room, which is now nearly completed. The Federation of Women's Clubs has assumed the responsibility of hiring a matron and is giving an ice cream social on Main street Thursday night from 7 until 10 o'clock to start the fund.

WILL BE A COUNTY FAIR.

A. O. Mason Says Races Will Be Just a Part of Each Day's Events.

A. O. Mason said today that he was preparing for a county fair this fall and not merely for a race meet. There will be stock exhibits and premiums, exhibits of all kinds of farm products, grains, vegetables, butters, canned goods and prizes for every class.

The active work of advertising the fair will begin soon. Committees will be appointed in each township to urge the farmers to enter exhibits, and James M. Stevens of Creston, Ia., is expected soon to begin work on the track department.

Nearly 100 horses have been entered from Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky and Wisconsin. The race track is about finished, and Mr. Mason invites automobilists to drive on it and help pack it down and get it in shape.

The grand stand will be finished in a few days, and work has started on the floral hall, the main exhibit building.

H. C. L. IS NO BAR TO MARRIAGE.

Nodaway's Lovers Wed So Young That They Have to Have Parental Consent.

The struggling young men of Nodaway county who are battling with this modern age's high cost of living for an existence are not, as the general hue and cry of the times would have us believe, putting off marriage until late in life. At least those who have been married this month are not.

The men and women who have applied to Recorder Wray for licenses since July 1 are young, so young that most of them have had to have the consent of their parents before they could obtain a license. The average age of the men is twenty and one-half years, while the women are nineteen. The oldest man is twenty-five and the youngest is eighteen. The extremes for the women are twenty-two and seventeen years.

Seven licenses have been issued. In four of them one or the other of the parties has had to have the consent of their parents, and in a fifth license both parties were under age. Of the six persons who obtained parental consent to be married, three are men and three are women.

DIRECTORS MEET

STANDARD POLAND-CHINA RECORD ASS'N IN SESSION.

CITY STILL ITS HOME

Board Decides to Give Premiums at Big Fairs—Disposes of Routine Business.

The first midyear meeting of the board of directors of the Standard Poland-China Record association was held here today. When seen by a representative of The Democrat-Forum the directors strongly denied that any attempt would be made in the meeting to take the home of the association away from Maryville. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and make arrangements for some of the state fairs this fall and to dispose of some matters of routine business.

The board decided to offer premiums at the Interstate fair, to be held in St. Joseph, the American Royal live stock fair in Kansas City and the Oklahoma state fair in Muskogee.

C. H. Walker of Kansas City met with the board today to discuss with it the foundation and publication of a new magazine devoted to the Poland-China business. The magazine is to be a bi-weekly publication, will be published in Kansas City and will be known as the Poland-China Journal.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors here last January a new set of by-laws was adopted, which provided for two meetings a year instead of one. Today's meeting was the first semi-annual meeting. It was held in the office of the association, on Third street. Olie McKelvey of Fairfield, Neb., was the only member of the board who did not attend the meeting. Those present were: President J. H. Harvey of Maryville, Vice President H. F. Gilmore of Hopkins, H. L. Faulkner, Jamesport, Mo.; T. J. Meisner, Sabetha, Kan.; P. C. Miller, Conway, Ia.; W. H. Charters, Butler, Mo., and George F. Woodworth, Maryville, secretary.

COMPANY F TO NEVADA SATURDAY

First Lieut. Loren DeMotte, commander of Company F, received orders today from Col. C. C. MacDonald of St. Joseph, commander of the Fourth regiment, Missouri National Guards, to bring every member of Company F to the state encampment at Nevada next week.

Those who do not go are liable to trial and dishonorable discharge, Lieutenant DeMotte said this morning, but if any members feel they cannot go he will be at the armory Friday night to hear their reasons and pass on them.

The company will leave Maryville Saturday afternoon, July 11, on the Burlington. About fifty men are expected to go. They will return Sunday, July 19.

JUDGE CONN IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Buggy in Which He Was Driving With Miss Hunt Struck by Car—No One Hurt.

Probate Judge W. H. Conn and his deputy, Miss Mabel Hunt, met with an automobile accident when returning to the court house from dinner today, but neither was hurt.

Judge Conn and Miss Hunt were driving west on Fifth street, near the high school building in his buggy when the accident occurred. A car was coming toward them and another was approaching them from the rear. In trying to pass both the buggy and the other car, Mrs. E. F. Welborn, driving Preston Seafers' car, struck the Conn buggy from the rear. It was thrown against the curbing and both back wheels were broken.

Mrs. Welborn was driving slowly at the time of the accident.

OFFERS TO PRODUCE LETTERS

Promoter Newman Contradicts Comptroller Williams.

Washington, July 8.—Comptroller Williams, before a senate committee investigating charges of misuse of official letterheads for promotion of a North Carolina gold mining project reiterated his previous statement that he had no interest whatsoever in the property and denied that he ever arranged a conference between the promoter and the prospective buyer.

Senators Pomerene and Swanson testified they bought stock in the mine. W. G. Newman, the promoter, contradicted testimony by Comptroller Williams that he had received no communication about the mine from Newman except a few telegrams. Newman offered to produce letters, but Senator Thompson, chairman of the committee, declined to receive them. Senator Clapp objected and said the letters should be produced.

His son Archie took him by automobile to New York for a meeting at Progressive headquarters with the state leaders.

The selection of a nominee for governor was brought up again in the hope of deciding whether Colonel Roosevelt will run. It was believed, however, that no settlement of this question would be possible. Colonel Roosevelt has not yet learned whether he will be physically able to make the campaign.

Athletics Defeat Giants 7-3 Monday.

The Athletics put themselves nearer the top in the Normal school base ball league by defeating the Giants 7-3 yesterday afternoon.

The game was easily the Athletics' from the start. The Giants were shut out until the last inning, when loose playing on the part of the Athletics let them make three scores.

The Grizzlies, who have been leading, are now but one game in advance of the Athletics, and the game Friday between these teams may tie them.

Second Brood of the Army Worm.

(By Leonard Haseman.)

It is nearly time for the second brood of the army worm to appear. Millions of the first brood escaped destruction, and when full fed, entered the ground and changed to the chrysalis stage, from which the moths are now emerging in countless numbers.

The army worm moth is light brown in color and nearly an inch long. When it rests, it folds its wings so as to extend lengthwise of the body. During the day these moths collect under leaves, in wheat shocks, and other protected places away from the bright sunlight. At sundown they begin to fly about. After dark they are attracted to lights in great numbers. These moths will lay their eggs on grasses and other green crops, and as soon as the eggs hatch the young caterpillars of the second swarm of army worms will begin to feed on and destroy the crops.

The Missouri college of agriculture does not regard the situation as especially serious, because while there are immense swarms of moths now laying their eggs, there are also equally great numbers of insects which are parasitic on caterpillars of the army worm type waiting to destroy the young worms when they hatch. These insects in former years have successfully controlled the second and third broods of army worms by killing them off in enormous numbers. Usually, however, the second brood has not been as large as it promises to be this year, judging by the number of moths. So we may expect trouble in certain restricted regions. The weather plays an important part in army worm control. Cool weather is favorable for the army worm and hot weather is unfavorable.

It is desirable that farmers in the regions where the army worm was so destructive early in the season should be on the look out, and if they appear in large numbers in any particular field take immediate steps to keep them from spreading.

See Frank Barmann for low down prices on wagons, wagon boxes and buggies.

RAMSOM NOT PAID, ZAPATA SLAYS MAN

Juan Velaso Executed When Delivery is Delayed.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 8.—Delay in the payment of a ransom of 1,000,000 pesos has resulted in the execution by Zapatistas of Juan Velasco, the manager of a cotton manufacturing concern, who was taen prisoner near Atlixco, state of Puebla, according to Velasco's brother, who left Vera Cruz to obtain his release, but returned from his unsuccessful mission.

The prisoner was compelled to send to the officials of the company in Puebla the demand for the ransom and Velasco's brother started out immediately to aid him. He proceeded as far as Apizaco, near Puebla, where he was going to get in touch with the Zapatistas, when he was informed that the captive already had been killed.

FUNSTON REPORTS FIGTHING

Washington Interested In Reports of Mutiny of Huerta Troops.

Washington, July 8.—The mutiny which has broken out among Mexican federal soldiers near American outposts at Vera Cruz was a subject of keen interest in American official quarters and several messages on the subject were received from General Funston, who reported that fighting between the federals and mutineers was in progress.

Funston reported the Mexican commander had informed him of the uprising and of the threat of the mutineers to attack the American lines.

According to a personal message from Villa, received in Washington from Torreon, differences between himself and Carranza are being satisfactorily adjusted.

Four Federal Officers Executed.

Nogales, Ariz., July 8.—Four federal officers were captured during the fighting near Guaymas and immediately executed, according to reports received by Constitutionalist officials. Thirty-four soldiers also were taken.

ILLINOIS MINERS IDLE

Forty Thousand Are Out of Work, Says Secretary McDonald.

Springfield, Ill., July 8.—A desperate condition in the coal mining industry in Illinois was depicted by Duncan McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the Illinois mine workers, addressing the state efficiency and economy committee at its meeting at the state house, considering reorganization of the labor and mining agencies of Illinois. Forty thousand of the 90,000 members of his order in the state are out of work, said Mr. McDonald, because of the overdoing of the coal mining industry in Illinois.

"Many of these miners are on the verge of starvation," said the speaker, "as we have not enough money in our relief fund to supply them all. Eighteen mining companies failed last year and probably more than that number will fail this year. Too many mines are being opened. There should be a law here like that in Germany, restricting the opening of new mines."

Orient Contractors Also Bankrupt.

Kansas City, July 7.—The three construction companies which built the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway and which went into bankruptcy with the road, were auctioned off on the steps of the federal building here for 5 cents on the dollar. Benjamin S. Harmon of New York City, representing the stockholders' committee, bought all three companies for an aggregate of $145,000.

No Public Funeral For Anarchists.

New York, July 8.—The public funeral and demonstration planned for Saturday by anarchists and others in honor of three men and the woman killed by the bomb explosion of July 4 has been called off. It is possible the victims will be cremated and the public funeral held over the ashes.

AFTER MISSOURI PACIFIC

House to Inquire Into Its Default on Subsidy Bonds.

Washington, July 8.—The house passed the resolution of Congressman Barton of Nebraska requiring the secretary of the treasury to send to the house important information now in the files of the treasury department concerning government bonds of the Missouri Pacific railroad covering the 100 miles of railroad extending from Atchison to Waterville, Kan.

The said bonds were issued by the government when that line was owned by the central branch of the Union Pacific before taken over by the Missouri Pacific.

In explaining this resolution of inquiry Mr. Barton said that the Missouri Pacific has issued bonds to the government in the sum of $1,600,000, that the accrued interest in all makes that amount now nearly $4,000,000, that the road never has paid any part of the principal or interest, being the only road in the United States that has not made good on its subsidy bond.

Reprimand For General Evans.

Washington, July 8.—The reprimand which President Wilson ordered for Brigadier General Robert K. Evans will take the form of a letter from Secretary Garrison, admonishing that officer not to discuss controversial subjects in public.
